Profile

As a Web Developer, I combine creativity with technical proficiency to design and maintain dynamic web applications. I am skilled in JavaScript, CSS, HTML, and frameworks such as React, Node.js, Express.js, and the MERN Stack. My expertise includes creating responsive, high-performing websites, optimizing for speed, ensuring robust security, and resolving complex issues. I also excel in RESTful APIs, Tailwind CSS, MongoDB, Git, GitHub, and Vercel for seamless data management and innovative, scalable digital solutions.
